Announcement#:18-117F

Firefighter Survival

July 19th from 19:00 to 22:00 hours

July 21st from 08:00 to 17:00 hours

Description: Based on Chief John Salka's "Get Out Alive" program, this program is designed for self-rescue and rescue of trapped firefighters. Course content will enable firefighters to recognize the types of events encountered on the fire ground that contribute to firefighter disorientation and/or entrapment, to have knowledge of what is necessary to ensure their safety and that of their partners or crew members, and perform self-rescue techniques when disoriented, separated, or when needing to exit a structure in an emergency. This course requires students to perform a number of practical evolutions with self-contained breathing apparatus (SCBA). This course includes the National Fire Academy Calling the Mayday.

Target audience: Entry-Level firefighter

Prerequisites: Firefighter I or equivalent

Registration: Pre-registration is mandatory. Walk-ins are not permitted. To register go to <https://training.westchestergov.com/training/login.do>. Each student must present a NYS Training Authorization Letter to the instructor. Class size is limited to Twenty (20) students.

Venue: Westchester County DES Training Center, 4 Dana Rd. – Grasslands Campus, Valhalla, New York. All students are to park in the lot adjacent to the Support Services Building located at 35 Walker Road. (There is a stairway linking the parking lot directly to the training campus.) For questions or concerns regarding weather or course cancellation call (914) 231 – 1615.

New York State Authorization form is MANDATORY for Admission to class
